LIQUORS, CIGARS.

Come to the Fair.

Hurrah! for the Fair," the old farmer shouts,
As Bobbin is driven up close to the door,
And pumpkins, etc, are piled in the carts,
All gathered with care from the old farmers store.

Then come to the Fair, let us see what you have;
We've a welcome for all, maid, matron and sire;
Bring your horses and daughters, your oxen and sons,
Our motto is "Forward," and forward means higher.

And when to our city, the pride of the West,
And viewing the sights and notions so rare,
You will want a Cigar to give zest to your taste,
And add to the interest you feel in the Fair

It needs but a trial to point out the place,
Our Cigars are selected with excellent care;
Then remember our store with its "native" in front,
And glance at our card when you visit the Fair.

PROCLAMATION.

A year of general peace and prosperity is drawing to a close. During this period our young State has steadily advanced in her rapid career towards wealth and greatness. Her resources have received an ample development. New avenues of trade and intercommunication have been opened, and a fresh impetus given to all departments of industry. Labor in all legitimate spheres of exercise has been bountifully rewarded. A generous harvest has filled the land with plenty, while health and happiness have prevailed within our borders. In the enjoyment of these temporal blessings, we should not be unmindful of the Gracious giver of all good gifts, the manifold exhibitions of whose favor and guardian care, meet us on every hand, and, that we may express our gratitude for these bounties, I hereby appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November next, to be observed as a day of Public Thanksgiving and Praise throughout the State.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, 20th day of October, 1856.

By the Governor, COLES BASHFORD.

JNO. W. HUNT, Asst. Secretary of State.

FIFTH WARD FREMONT CLUB.

The Fremont Club in the 5th ward will meet this evening, Wednesday, Oct. 22, at Mehn's Garden at half-past seven o'clock.

J. B. WILLIAMSON, Esq., will address the Club in English, and B. DOSCHKE, Esq., in German.

Let all turn out.

By Order of Chairman.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, THAT NOT ONE BORDER RUFFIAN—NOT ONE PRO-SLAVERY MAN—HAS BEEN PUNISHED OR EVEN ARRESTED IN KANSAS FOR CRIMES COMMITTED AGAINST FREE STATE MEN, WHILE THE JAIL AT LECOMPTON IS FULL OF FREE STATE VICTIMS, ARRESTED BY ORDER OF GOVERNOR GEARY.

ELECTION---TUESDAY, NOV. 4.

POLLS OPEN FROM 9 A. M. TILL SUNDOWN.

The names of all candidates voted for, must be on one ticket.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS:

1. One year's Residence in this State.
2. Actual Residence in the Town or Ward where the vote is offered.
3. Citizenship, or Declaration of Intentions.
4. Twenty-one years of age, or upwards.

To Challengers!

Let no man vote who is not known to you to possess the above legal requisites. Challenge every person offering to vote, who is not known to be a qualified elector.

Republicans! Be on Your Guard!

LOOK OUT FOR ILLEGAL VOTES!!

The outrageous frauds practised by the Buchaniers in the recent Pennsylvania election should serve as a warning to the friends of Freedom everywhere, and put them on their guard against similar attempts to carry the Presidential election. In this State, with FAIR PLAY and a FULL VOTE, the success of the Republican ticket is certain. To guard against possible fraud, therefore, immediate measures should be taken, in every town, to have two or more CHALLENGERS stationed at each poll on election day. Let these challengers see to it that no man votes who is not a qualified elector. Let them exercise their right of challenging, calmly but resolutely. In this city, two years ago, nearly seven hundred illegal votes were kept out of the polls by prompt and determined challenging. If the same precaution is adopted throughout the State, on election day, it will make a difference of from three to five thousand votes in our favor. Let us urge our friends, therefore, in every county, to select challengers at once, for each town, and to make sure that they are at their posts and attending to their duties on election day.

OLD TIPPECANOE ALL RIGHT.—In the Tippecanoe district, Indiana, where the Buchaniers have been claiming the member of Congress, WILSON, Republican, proves to be elected. The official returns are doing the business for many of the brags of our opponents.

FOURTH WARD ASSEMBLY DISTRICT.—It will be seen that the Fourth Ward means to be early in the field. All right!

Who shall go to Congress?

Wisconsin, with her unparalleled growth and prosperity, is the child of the Free Ordinance of 1787, an Ordinance made by the fathers of the Constitution, who believed in and exercised the power of prohibiting Slavery in the Territories. Now-a-days, a new race of constitutional expounders has arisen, who hold that Congress has no power to prohibit Slavery in the Territories; and a new race of politicians, who believe in, and carry out into action the principle that Slavery must of right be extended over Free Territory, and Free Labor of course degraded by the act. Here is the issue now.

Messrs. POTTER, WASHBURN, and BILLINGHURST sustain and will carry out the old doctrine of the Fathers, holding Slavery sectional, an evil, and not by any means to be extended over any Territory of the United States.

Messrs. HADLEY, CRAWFORD, and HOBART, on the contrary, repudiate the doctrines of the Constitution and Founders of the Republic, and are of the party which holds Slavery national—a very large portion of which holds it as a blessing and exacts obedience from their northern allies—and maintain that Slavery must be allowed to go wherever the U. S. flag floats—and shews its faith by its works in using the power of the Federal Government to subjugate Freedom and establish Slavery in Kansas.

Which set of Congressmen will the people of Wisconsin send to represent them at Washington?

Again; the people of Wisconsin have been for years struggling to overthrow and get rid of a set of corrupt politicians who have disgraced the name of the State by the most unheard of villainies while in office; who, elevated to power and place by the mistaken confidence of their fellow-citizens, have abused their power and position by the commission of wrongs of the grossest kind—of which the State Lunatic Asylum Contract, which was to burthen the people with an expense of over half a million of dollars—the election frauds and forgeries last fall—the squandering of the School Fund by millions—and the mismanagement and defalcations in the Treasury—are but samples of operations carried on through a course of years.

Messrs. Hadley, Crawford and Hobart, the democratic candidates for Congress, have been and are still the warm partizans, defenders and apologists, of these men—this corrupt faction; and the whole influence of those desperate politicians is at work to aid their election to Congress—Look about you, in your own neighborhoods, people of Wisconsin, and see if we do not tell you the truth!

On the other hand, Messrs. POTTER, WASHBURN and BILLINGHURST are the opponents of all such frauds and their perpetrators.

Which set of men will you send to Congress?

Singular Circumstance---Attempted Suicide.

A correspondent at Markesan, Marquette Co. informs us that a stranger put up at the Markesan House in that village on the 15th inst, and retired early to his room, and was found next morning nearly dead, having opened the veins in both his arms, and bled profusely. At first he refused to answer any questions, but after a good deal of evasion said that he was one of the passengers saved from the Niagara—that his name was John Francis—that he had lost his money ($500,) and wished to die, &c.

He had with him a carpet bag which he says he seized while floating in the water. He said he had no money, except part of a dollar in silver. The satchel "was found to contain a quantity of dirty clothing, a ten dollar bank bill, a map of Wisconsin, writing materials, hat and clothes brushes," and none appeared to have been wet. The man denied any knowledge of the contents of the bag. From a linen collar which he wore, the name has been cut except two letters, which do not agree with the name which the man gives himself.

I am for our correspondent, who goes on to state of his own knowledge the good provisions and care against accidents by fire on board the Niagara, as observed on a late trip. He says the stranger came to Markesan from Fond du Lac.

The Allies in Indiana.

The Know Nothings did their best, in Indiana as in Ohio, to help the Buchaniers at the recent State Elections. These natural allies were "check by jowl" throughout the contest, and rejoiced together at every seeming advantage they obtained over the Republicans. Mr. WILLARD, the democratic Governor elect of Indiana, in his speech at Indianapolis, on the evening after election, remarked that "the Know Nothings voted for him because they did not wish to add Abolitionism to Know Nothingism." The Cleveland Herald says that the Republican victory there was gallantly won over the combined forces of the Buchaniers and Know Nothings. The Cincinnati Gazette has the same remark as to the State generally. In Ohio, the Republican triumph is a clear one. In Indiana and Pennsylvania, on the other hand, whatever slight advantage the Buchaniers have gained is mainly due to their Know-Nothing Allies.

NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of Manitowoc Co. have nominated for Assembly in the 1st district DANIEL SMITH—"uncle Dan" of Mishicott—a true-hearted old gentleman, with hosts of personal friends who will work for him with a will; in the 2d district, CHARLES BELITZ. They have also nominated the following county ticket:

Treasurer—Chas. Esslinger.
Register—Chas. White.
Sheriff—R. B. Gray.
Coroner—Stephen Bates.
County Surveyor—Fayette Armsby.
District Attorney—W. H. Hamilton.

The Buchanan men of the Portage City district, Columbia Co. have nominated for Assembly ANDREW DUNN.

NOMINATIONS.—Col. EZRA MILLER has been nominated for the State Senate by the democrats of the Janesville, Rock Co. district.

A. M. HANCHETT is the democratic candidate for Assembly in the 2d district.

H. A. TENNEY, who had already been called out as an independent candidate, in the 5th Dane Co district for Assembly, has received the Republican nomination.

The Republicans of Lafayette Co. have nominated G. W. LEE for Senator, and A. A. TOWNSEND, THOS. SHELDON, and —— RICHARDS for Assembly.

THE ELECTION FRAUDS!—We need scarcely take the trouble to call the attention of our readers to the testimony published in another column in relation to the Waupaca election frauds. It tells a story which fixes the crime distinctly upon the authorities at Madison and sundry individuals named in "Wells," "Long Sessions," and the men at "Headquarters" are pilloried there. Look at them!

DEMOCRATIC COMPLIMENT FOR THE GERMANS.—The Richmond Enquirer; the great Buchanan organ at the South, ranks the German with the negro-slave. It says: "They (the negroes) are much more capable of intelligently exercising the rights of suffrage than the ignorant Dutchmen at the North, whose votes can be bought for a dollar or a pfi of lager bier." The Buchaniers boast that their doctrines are the same in Connecticut, Virginia and South Carolina.

WILMOT'S DISTRICT.—This District rolled up a tremendous Republican majority, viz:

Bradford	4,000 maj.
Susquehanna	1,750 "
Tioga	2,850 "
Total,	8,100

NEW POST OFFICES.—A post office with the name of Henrietta, has been established in the town of Henrietta, in Richland county. Herman B. Miller is the postmaster.

A new Post Office has also been established in the town of Ashippun, Dodge County. It is called ALDERLEY, and the name of the P. M. is J. JEREMIAH.

The Free State Prisoners in Kansas.

The companies lately captured and detained, on their way into Kansas, by the U. S. troops, publish the following statement. Our Wisconsin company are among them. This is a free country!:

Statement of the Prisoners.

ENCAMPMENT OF PONY CREEK, K. T., Midnight, Oct. 10, 1856.

We, the undersigned, present to our fellow-citizens the following statement of facts, and ask their serious attention to the high-handed violation of Constitutional rights which they disclose.

We left Mount Pleasant, Iowa, on the 20th of September, and after a tedious journey of some 21 days through Iowa and Nebraska, we reached the Kansas line this morning, October 10th, 1856. When we had proceeded about 3 miles South of the line, and while pursuing our way in a peaceful and quiet manner, we were suddenly stopped by between 600 and 700 United States troops, with six pieces of artillery, under command of Col. Cooke, acting as a posse to United States Deputy Marshal Preston.

After enquiring who we were and to what place we were going, and being truthfully informed, they announced their attention to subject us to search, in obedience to instructions from Governor Geary. Col. Eldridge as conductor of the train, presented the following letter of welcome from Gov. Geary:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Lecompton, K. T., Sept. 30, 1856.

To all whom it may concern.

The bearer of this note, Robert MORROW, represents himself as the agents of certain peaceful and bona fide emigrants about entering this Territory through Nebraska, under the escort of Col. Eldridge, assisted by Gen. Pomeroy, and Col. Perry, coming from whatever quarter, and I request all good citizens to afford shelter and protection to every person entering this Territory for peaceable and lawful purposes.

If the party under Col. Eldridge come in this way, without threats or a hostile attitude, I hereby request all military officers in this Territory to give them a safe conduct and to permit them to pass without interruption.

JNO. W. GEARY, Gov. of Kansas Territory.

This letter was sent by a special messenger to the train while at Nebraska. We protested against any detention or search as a violation of our constitutional rights, and of the spirit of Gov. Geary's letter. We admitted that we were thoroughly armed, and stated that Gov. Geary had been so informed by the bearer of the letter, and he had distinctly admitted our right to come armed into the Territory. The train was ordered to start, but was immediately forcibly stopped, neither our protest nor Gov. Geary's letter being respected. The wagons were then searched, and all arms found in them taken away. During the search trunks and valises were torn and broken open, the beds of families were thrown out in the rain and trampled in the mud—the ladies being treated with inexcusable rudeness.

After the mass done they ordered to escort us to Gov. Geary, on condition that the leaders pledged the members to keep every man with the train. This, having neither right nor power to do, they refused; telling them that when they had taken from us all that they wanted, we would take care of ourselves. We were then informed that we were prisoners of war, our entire train, numbering some 250 men, women and children, being surrounded by United States troops and marched into camp, where we are to-night under a strong military guard, who have orders to shoot down any man who attempts to leave.

Treason in Virginia.

One Judge THOMPSON, of Virginia, emulous of the notoriety acquired by other Judicial hacks by their subserviency to Slavery, took occasion, in a recent charge to a Virginia Grand Jury, to lay down the doctrine that every man who advocated the election of Col. FREMONT, was guilty of treason to the State. The Buchanier organs are, with some exceptions, highly gratified at this novel exposition of the law; but there are some independent papers which take a different view of it. The Petersburgh Intelligencer says:

"Can this monstrous outrage go by unrebuked and unpunished? Is every consideration of public liberty, personal rights and private happiness to be merged in a presidential election and the means of carrying it? For better would it be for the man Fremont to be elected by acclamation, than that the abominable doctrines of Judge Thompson should prevail. Aye, more than that, far better that this Union, blessed as it is, should be smashed in pieces, and that the chance should be left us of reconstructing with its fragments some other structure of government favorable to freedom, than Judge Geo. W. Thompson's opinions should prevail. We, therefore, call upon 'good men everywhere,' on patriots and freemen, to rise up and with us denounce this odious and tyrannical charge to a grand jury of one of the courts of our State; and more than that, we call on the legislature of our State to impeach Judge Geo. W. Thompson, for the offence of attempting, in his official capacity, to put in practice in this State, one of the most tyrannical and oppressive doctrines ever invented by the wit of bad men, to crush liberty, and murder its advocates.

No Fusion.

We are glad to see that there is to be no fusion in Pennsylvania. The Fillmore men in that State played false on last Tuesday, as they also did in Indiana. This is evident from the facts stated in the New York Times, Louisville Journal and Jeffersonville Republican, which are reprinted in another place. There should be no fusion with such men. We will now have clear, pure and genuine Fremont electoral tickets in Indiana and Pennsylvania, and every man who is opposed to Slavery extension will vote for those tickets. Those who are not opposed to the Buchaniers could not be induced to vote with us by any arrangement that would result from fusion.—Let the battle be fought, therefore, fairly and squarely on the single issue—Shall Kansas be a Free or Slave State.—Cincinnati Gazette

That is the right talk. We trust that hereafter there may be no seeming of fusion with the Fillmore men. We should have done far better in other Indiana or Pennsylvania if we had had a straight Fremont ticket in each of those States, rather than occupying an equivocal position. For the sake of concentrating the Anti-Slavery strength, our friends have conceded too much, and have been sold out by the Fillmore Know-Nothings, who have voted for the Buchanan tickets, and will always prove treacherous and faithless. Pretending to love Freedom, they stab Freedom to the heart. Let our friends in those States insist their banner for the November contest with no stain or suspicion of Know Nothingism about it.

MILWAUKEE AND MISSISSIPPI RAIL ROAD.—The contractors are pushing ahead famously with the work on the Western Division of the road. The rails will be laid as far as Boscobel, 15 miles west of Muscoda and only thirty miles from Prairie du Chien, by the end of the month, and the grading, bridging, &c, on the last section, is so far advanced, that, with good weather, the contractors confidently anticipate reaching the Mississippi with the rails by the NEW YEAR.—This is progress indeed!

JUNEAU COUNTY SEAT.—The Legislature at its late session passed an act locating the county seat of Juneau Co. at New Lisbon, in TOWN 16, Range 3, East.

Pennsylvania and Indiana.

Evidence is beginning to reach us of large frauds that have been perpetrated in both States. All along the southern and western border of Indiana, it is believed that extensive importations of voters have taken place from both Kentucky and Illinois. In Pennsylvania, if the reports are an approximation to the truth, the desecration of the ballot-box are still more criminal, and, as an example, it is said that over ten thousand illegal votes were polled in Philadelphia alone.

The fraudulent voting in Colfax's district must have exceeded two thousand votes. Hundreds of fellows voted at Laporte, Michigan City, Lafayette, Logansport, Columbia, South Bend, Delphi, Williamsport, and other railroad points, who were unknown as citizens or residents at those places. The same system of colonization and double voting that prevailed in Chicago last spring was brought into full play.

From the Madison State Journal.

The Frauds and Forgeries of the Last State Canvass.

Wells "Had a Letter" from Head Quarters.

"Sixty Barstow Votes Must be had, Cost what they Would,"

Testimony taken by the Judiciary Committee under a resolution of the Senate, instructing them to inquire into the frauds of the last State Canvass.

Estill Wilson being first duly sworn; says he is sixty years old, resides in the town of Amherst, in Waupaca county, has resided there a part of the time for the last three years. I was in the town of Amherst on the day of election, was one of the board of election for that town. The chairman wanted me to bring the returns down to the county seat of Waupaca on the Saturday after election. I came down to the county seat and gave the returns to Mr. Chamberlain, the clerk of the County Board of Supervisors, of Waupaca County. I was then on my way to the city of Milwaukee. Came to Milwaukee on Wednesday next after the election, was at the city between two and three weeks, or perhaps longer—I went back by the way of Sheboygan, and by way of Berlin, got to Berlin on a Friday night. I wanted to go home to Amherst, some 45 to 50 miles distant from Berlin. On Saturday morning there was a gentleman going to Waupaca Falls with a livery team. The man who owned the team drove up, and the hotel keeper informed him that there was a gentleman who wished to go up to the Falls and did not wish to lay over until Monday; that he had just stopped over the river. The livery man then turned about and came in pursuit of me, he met me on the bridge, I turned back, went to the tavern, paid my bill and my fare to Waupaca. I was then introduced to Mr. Wells, editor of the paper published at Berlin, and we—Mr. Wells and myself—got in and rode off together. Wells drove the team, no other person in the conveyance.

After riding a few miles we commenced talking about the late election for Governor—I gave Wells to understand that I was a friend of Barstow—Wells then told me his business to Waupaca Falls—Wells said he had a letter from "HEAD QUARTERS," which letter informed him, Wells that sixty votes must be got for Barstow, let them cost what they would. We rode on over to the Plank Road, and there we stopped, fed our horses, and got dinner. At this place, Wells showed his letter to some person who kept a store there—dont know the name of the person. After dinner we went on towards Waupaca—on the way we talked of the method to be pursued in getting the votes, as it was necessary that the votes should be had. I asked him if there could not be a precinct set off in town 25, Range 10. He said he would talk about it when we got to Waupaca. We got to Waupaca about dark on the same day we started from Berlin. When we arrived there was a trial before a justice court, and we could not immediately see the persons we wanted to.

Shortly after our arrival I saw lawyer Sessions, of Waupaca—a tall man, I don't recollect his Christian name—and brought him to Wells; they said they would meet in the office of Sessions, immediately after the trial was over. After the trial was over, about 9 o'clock P. M. we met in the office of Sessions. There were present, at this meeting, Wells, Sessions, Wm. Hibbard, and several others. Wells told his business there, and showed his letter to those present. It was storming bad, and the meeting was adjourned till the next morning at 9 o'clock A. M.

At this meeting the matter of obtaining the votes was talked over, and Sessions said the votes could be got.

Next morning some time in the forenoon Wells myself, Sessions, Hibbard, and several others met at Sessions' office. At this meeting the subject of procuring the sixty additional votes, called for by said letter, was taken up; some proposed going to Stills Landing, stating that a precinct had been set off there from which there had been no return, it was also proposed as witness thinks to go to Mukwa. At the stage of the proceedings I was requested to leave the room by Sessions and Hibbard; some others left at the same time. I left as requested—the reasons given by Sessions and Hibbard for wishing me to leave was that they were about to transact some business in regard to the subject before the meeting, and they thought they could do it better alone.

Wells remained. After leaving the room, I went to the door three times and I knocked.—The door was locked so that I could not get in; the persons inside informed me they had not got through. The door remained shut for about two hours or longer. I had seen so much of the transaction that I then determined to see the whole if I could.

I made up my mind they would have to come to the clerk's office in order to then finish the business. I therefore went over to Putnam's store where the clerk's office was kept, meaning the clerk of Board of Supervisors. I sat there 1 or 1 hour; at the end of this time Hibbard, Sessions, Wells, and I think a young man whose name I do not recollect, brother-in-law of Sessions, came into the clerk's office. The clerk, Chamberlain, was not in the office; his partner, Putnam, said he was not at home, that he had gone to Milwaukee. When these persons came in they went behind the counter to the clerk's desk, and they used the county seal and affixed the seal to some papers they had, by stamping the seal on the papers in the press. There was something mentioned about signing the clerk's name, when Mr. Wells took the papers and a bottle of liquor furnished him. After telling me that he would get the matter fixed at Buckman, he would come back and take up my people nation, he got into the wagon and started on the road towards Berlin.

Fremont and Foote---Another Lie Nailed.

One of the favorite falsehoods of the Buchanier presses, often repeated and dwelt upon with unction, is the statement that Col. FREMONT struck Senator FOOTE, for words spoken in debate, these presses using the statement as, in their view, a complete answer and offset to the Brooks' outrage upon Senator SUMNER.

The real facts in the case, that instead of Fremont's striking Foote, the latter struck Fremont, have been given frequently by the Republican press. Still, the Buchaniers have insisted upon their falsehood. Mr. FOOTE is now a resident of California, and now as heretofore, an opponent of Col. Fremont, but his sense of honor will not allow him to be silent when false charges are made in which his name is used. Several persons had published a card in California, charging Col. Fremont with assaulting and "striking Mr. Foote, a gray haired man, for words spoken in debate"—whereupon the latter publishes a letter, in which he says:

I have been requested by several gentlemen friendly to the election of Col. J. C. Fremont to the Presidency of the Union, to state how far the account given in that article of the unfortunate difficulty between Col. Fremont and myself is true.

I do, therefore, declare that so far as the cause of our misunderstanding is concerned, the statement referred to is sufficiently accurate; but it is not true that Col. Fremont pronounced on the floor of the Senate, anything which had fallen from me in the course of the debate to be false. And, although it is true that he was dissatisfied with what I had said in opposition to his bill for the settlement of land titles in California, and requested a special personal interview with me on the subject, in the progress of which he used language which I deemed it my duty to resent, and did resent, yet, it is not true that Col. Fremont inflicted on that occasion the least personal indignity on me. The only blow struck was one, for which I am alone responsible; for before he had time to return the blow received by himself, Senators Mangum and Clarke intervened and separated us.

I cannot close without the expression of my regret that any attempt should be made, in connection with this transaction, to hold Col. Fremont responsible for conduct calculated to infringe upon the freedom of debate in the United States Senate. However opposed as I am to the measure advocated by him for the settlement of the land titles in California, and however much I am opposed to his election to the Presidential office, I feel in justice bound to declare, that I have never been disposed to complain seriously of his conduct in the affair referred to; and that there is nothing in it that should in the least degree lessen his claims to the respect and confidence of his political friends and supporters. What is said in the article cited above about my age, my gray hairs, &c., is simply ridiculous, as I was, in 1850, only forty-six years of age, and am yet sufficiently hale and vigorous to defend my person and maintain my rights and honor against any assailant.

September 9th, 1856. H. S. FOOTE.

Glorious Victory in Ohio!!

Ohio has done her duty, fully and completely. Nothing more could be asked of her. Over thirty thousand majority on a State election does well enough. On the Presidency she will give Fremont nearly fifty thousand. In our country townships a great many votes were not polled, because nothing can induce many of our farmers to think the State election equally important with the Presidential.

But, whether the majority in Ohio be thirty, forty, or fifty thousand it is unimportant. The vote is fixed and decisive. We confess to some pride in the clear and manly expression of her vote for freedom. She is the oldest child of the Ordinance of 1787—that immortal work of our fathers. She has not, and she will not, bow before any legion of Slavery. She will play Hobgoblin to no political overseers. In the next Congressional Delegation we shall of course lose. We shall send three or four gentlemen—monuments to the mercy of the people, who would not wholly ostracise the pro-slavery party. We trust they will not be inferior to those of their own kidney and class.

We have done another thing. We have proved that Freedom is strongest when she stands alone—when boldly and manfully, without fusion or compromise, she stands for the universal Rights of Man. There we do stand, and there we shall—on principles which are as immutable as truth, and which are destined to a full and final conquest. And now—Hail to Ohio!—Cincinnati Gazette, Oct. 18.

The Regatta.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 21, 1856.

EDS. DAILY SENTINEL:—We have just seen in the Chicago Journal, a communication from "Wenona" in relation to the Regatta in our city on the 9th inst. We should not notice it, but that it rather reflects upon the way the Milwaukee boats were manned; as though New York city had been ransacked for skilful oarsmen for our benefit. Dame Rumor is always busy with her tales, and seldom has more foundation for her stories than assurance or suspicion; for instance, it was currently reported here at the time, that the Venona, of Chicago, had a picked crew from Montreal, imported expressly for the race, and that the builder of the Lady Putnam had sent on men to man the boat, against their old competitor, Mr. Brooks.

When we saw the graceful movements of both the Putnam and Wenona, before the race, the Milwaukee Clubs thought that if they were able to get the third prize, they would do well.

The Jo C. Fremont is owned by the Excelsior Boat Club, and the crew who pulled in her at the Regatta, are all members and were among the first in getting up the Club. All reside in Milwaukee, but one, who is a farmer a few miles out.

As to being "from the vicinity of New York" it is true that most of our members formerly resided in New York city or State, but having changed our homes some years since, consider ourselves as much Milwaukeeans as though born here; all members of the club.

Of the crew who pulled the Wenona of Milwaukee, only one is a shipmaster; all reside here.

The Jo Sie Fremont declined the race on account of the absence from the city of their stroke-oarsman during the time they should have practised, and for no other reason whatever.

For the Excelsior Boat Club,
JOHN COLGATE, Pres't.

HASTAS, Sec'y.

The following is the article from the Journal referred to above:

(Communicated)

THE MILWAUKEE REGATTA.

In justice to the amateurs of Chicago who pulled the "Wenona," of this city, at the recent Milwaukee Regatta, allow me to make a few observations relative thereto.

The arrangements of the Milwaukee Clubs were everything that could be desired—the appointmen of judges was made in all fairness, and everything appertaining quite satisfactory.

The selection of the crews was of an entirely different nature. The "John C. Fremont" was rowed by professional oarsmen from the vicinity of New York, not known to either of the clubs of Milwaukee, and strong, athletic men. The "Wenona" of Milwaukee had only two members of her club on board, the remainder consisted of volunteer ship masters, &c.

Now it is hardly fair to expect amateurs, who only make rowing a pastime and pleasure, to pull against professional men.

In fact had the crew of the Wenona of Chicago done justice to themselves, they would have backed out at once, as did the crew of the "Jessie Fremont," when such proceedings became known.

Instead of doing this, however, and thereby breaking up the race, they subjected themselves to almost certain defeat, and for which they deserve credit. It is to be hoped that when a Regatta takes place in Chicago, different arrangements will be made, so that none but amateurs will be called upon to pull against each other. If professionals wish to join in, let them try mettle of their own stamp, and then the victors will have some a credit.

In conclusion let me say a word or two as to the kindness of Captain Drew, of this city, the Captains and officers of the steamers Planet and Traveller who showed us every politeness and attention that could be desired.

The uniform civility and urbanity of the Milwaukee and Wenona boat clubs, as well as that of all parties, is beyond all praise, and we look forward with pleasure to the time when it will be in our power to reciprocate. WENONA.

Probable Frauds in Philadelphia.

There is such a sudden and enormous increase in the vote of Philadelphia, as to justify the belief that he contemplated fraud of pouring in Buchanan votes from New York, was successfully carried out. Here is the vote compared with that of previous years:

	Dem.	Opp.	T tal.
1848—(President)	21,593	22,166	53,5.4
1852—(President)	26,762	26,847	53,609
1853—(Governor)	24,960	29 879	55,810
1855—(Canal Com.)	28,756	25,042	54,224
1856—(Governor)	29,584	25,726	55 310
1856—(Canal Com.)	24,544	21,932	66,476

Here is an increase of over Eleven Thousand Votes since last May!

The Opposition vote has gained largely, as it was done did it would do, among the legitimate voters. But the Democratic vote, which all canvasses allowed to have decreased, and which it was conceded on all hands would show a falling off, is suddenly reinforced by 5,000 ballots.—Where did they come from?

It is to be remembered in this connection that a large number of fictitious names were found to have been put on the Assessment Rolls just previous to his election, also that money was openly used in New York, to hire men to go to Philadelphia and vote the Democratic ticket. The matter should, and we trust will, receive a prompt judicial investigation.—Albany Evening Jour.

JUDGE RANDALL PRESIDING.

In the case of the State vs. Edward Kavanaugh, a continuance was granted the defendant, on recognizing in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of Court and was discharged from custody.

Elizabeth Roberts was tried on an indictment charging her with adultery, found not guilty and discharged

In the case of the State vs. William Williams, indicted, tried and convicted of disfiguring an ox, a new trial was granted; the defendant gave bail for his appearance at the next term of Court, and was discharged from custody

William Cramp was tried for adultery with Elizabeth Roberts.

This was a peculiar case, and the evidence relied upon to convict the defendant of a curious character In the Police Court an examination was had, in which a man named Riley was charged with adultery with Elizabeth Roerts; the latter swore to the adultery, and Cramp was called to t peach the testimony of the woman Roberts, and to show her of bad character, and when on the witness stand swore to several acts of adultery, and also that he had himself had improper connection with her. On this evidence he was indicted. The woman Roberts was called to the stand, in the Circuit Court, after having been tried and acquitted on an indictment for adultery, and swore distinctly that no such act had taken place between herself and the prisoner.

The jury had retired, but were not agreed when we left the Court

A Noble Charity.

It is now five years since, that the citizens of our young and thriving city learned the arrival of some two hundred Norwegian Emigrants in their midst, stricken down by ship fever and cholera With no place whither, with safety, they could be removed, with no purse to lend these poor dying emigrants in a land of strangers, the community felt rejoiced that there were some, comparatively unknown and unnoticed, for whom contagion and pestilence had no terrors. By their sick beds, week after week, amidst scenes often most trying to the strong nerves of man, did the Sisters of Charity continue their noble work, when Death's daily victims were counted by tens and twenties.

The community at large, grateful for this most timely charity, and truly thankful for the noble spirit that knew neither clime, color nor creed in its charitable ministrations, offered, through James H. Rogers, Esq, some compensation for the services thus gracefully rendered — The compensation was respectfully declined, and as went on the Sisters in their deeds of charity, a blessing to many a poor, sick, homeless invalid, of whom the world knows nothing. The citizens of Milwaukee are not ungrateful They have not forgotten the past, and when the opportunity was presented to them, they showed their appreciation of such an institution by deeds, not words.

We are led into this train of thought by GARRETT BARRY, Esq., one of the Committee, informing us that the subscription to the new Hospital, had already amounted to the handsome sum of $7,000.

We were also shown a rough draft of the proposed building, prepared by Mr. Dillenberg, the Architect of Messrs. Mitchell and Ogden s Block

The estimated cost of the new Hospital is about $18,000, and the building, when completed, will be alike an ornament to the growing beauty of our goodly city, and a monument of the liberal philanthropy of its generous citizens The Sisters return their heartfelt thanks for the kind manner in which they have been received, and purpose publishing immediately a list of all those who have cheerfully as generously contributed to this noble charity

Let our City Fathers but do their duty in giving the lots already proposed as a site for the same, and among the noble institutions of which Milwaukee will boast, as evidences of a true hearted philanthropy—will stand certainly not among the last or least—the New HOSPITAL!

Finding the Bodies of Drowned Persons.

The following extract of a letter from a friend in Herkimer Co., N. Y., to a gentleman in this city, may be worth publishing for practical purposes,

"One of Mr. Cain's little boys was drowned last week, in our canal. They raked the canal, fired cannon over the water, all to no purpose. They did not succeed in finding the body till a young lady on a boat recommended them to take a loaf of bread, make a hole in it, put in some quicksilver and fasten it in, and then put the bread on the water, and it would float until it came to the child. She said she had seen it operate with success. No one had any faith, but the tried it, and sure, the bread floated a few rods, and then stopped. A boat came along and drove it from its place, but as soon as the boat passed it returned to the same spot, and they took a hook and found the child in that place. He had been in the canal two days."

Can any one account for this? The experiment might easily be tried with the dead body of an animal, in which the result would doubtless be the same as with a human body.

OPERA TO-NIGHT'—Our Milwaukee Musical Society will treat us, this evening, to the Opera of "The Daughter of the Regiment. It will be well performed, and abundantly worth seeing Let us see that our home talent is properly appreciated and patronized.

ANOTHER REGATTA.—It will be seen, from our advertising columns, that another Regatta is to come off, on our River, next Saturday afternoon. If the weather is pleasant, the show will be a handsome one.

MADISON ARTISTS.—We find the following in the Madison Patriot, in relation to the photographs and ambrotypes exhibited by those excellent artists, Johnson & Fuller, of that place, at the State Fair

We are pleased to know, that Messrs Johnson & Fuller bore off the palm at the State Fair, the committee awarding to them the first premium, though by the published proceedings it appears Milwaukee worked in her supplements

Will the Patriot substantiate its assertion? Its charge is nothing else than that of fraud in the award, and our Milwaukee artists have no desire, and, we may add, no need of any aid of that sort to obtain premiums for their work We know that the "published" list is precisely the award of the Committee

LECTURE BY MR. BOWEN THIS EVENING.—We learn that Mr. B. S Bowen, the blind author of the "Offering," will deliver a lecture in the basement of Plymouth Congregational Church this evening.

Subject, the "Influence of Christianity in Ameliorating the Condition of the Blind"

We trust that he may have a large audience, and are sure that he will give them an interesting and profitable lecture.
